2016/17 SCHOOL DIRECT STUDENT

THE SCHOOL DIRECT PROGRAMME

School Direct allows those interested in a teaching career to complete the majority of their initial teacher training ("ITT") in a school setting.

Students complete 60 days of training and 120 days of classroom-based teaching. Teaching theory is taught through tutored sessions, covering topics such as literacy and phonics, behaviour management and the role of Teaching Assistants.

Supporting our students is central to our programme and during your time in school you will work closely alongside your classroom teacher and school-based mentor, your professional tutor and Forward Together's ITT management team.

THE BENEFITS

School Direct students spend much more of their training time in the classroom and school environment. The school-led programme allows for theory to be put straight into practice and for training methods to be developed in context, ensuring that newly-qualified teachers are well-prepared for life in the classroom from the very start of their careers.

WHERE WILL I BE BASED?

During your training, you will complete placements across several Forward Together Alliance schools, gaining hands-on and practical experience of classroom working in different environments.

CRITERIA

To train with us, you will need:

- ✓ a Bachelors degree qualification of 2:1 (preferred) or above, or a recognised equivalent. 2:2 degree qualifications will be considered;
- ✓ 5 GCSE grades A-C, to include English Language, Mathematics and Science (or equivalent qualifications); and
